ACE - TERMS & PILICIES

1. Introduction
These Terms & Policies govern your use of the ACE advertising generation platform.
By using the Service, you confirm that you agree to be bound by this Agreement.

2. Use of the Service
The Service allows users to generate advertising variations based on product information you provide.
All generated materials are provided as-is without guarantees.

3. User Responsibility & Compliance
You are fully responsible for legal compliance, copyrights, and product usage under all jurisdictions.

4. Copyright & Intellectual Property
All responsibility regarding intellectual property lies exclusively with the user.
ACE bears no liability for misuse or infringement of content.

5. Payment Policy
Payments are processed via iCount.
All payments are final and non-refundable.

6. Privacy Policy
Only essential data required for payment and platform operation is collected.
No behavioral tracking or cookies are used.

7. Limitation of Liability
ACE assumes no responsibility for damages, legal claims, or misuse of generated content.

8. Jurisdiction
All terms fall under the ruling laws of Israel.
Legal authority resides exclusively with the courts of Israel.

9. Amendments
ACE may update these Terms occasionally.
Continued use = acceptance of the updated version automatically.

10. AI-Generated Product Names
If the user does not provide a product name, ACE may generate a product name automatically. These names are generated by artificial intelligence based on the information provided by the user and ACE makes no representation or warranty that such names are unique, available for use, or free of third-party rights, including trademarks. The user is solely responsible for verifying the availability and legal use of any product name generated by ACE before using it commercially.
